Vancouver, BC, March 10, 2022 – East Side Games Group (TSX: EAGR) (OTC: EAGRF) (“ESGG” or the “Company”), Canada’s leading free-to-play mobile game group, today announced financial results for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2021. All amounts are stated in Canadian dollars on an as reported basis under IFRS unless otherwise indicated.

“This was a monumental year for ESGG and we capped it off with significant growth in Q4, achieving record quarterly revenue, annual revenue and record user numbers, in addition to launching our first ‘Super Marquee’ title, RuPaul’s Drag Race Superstar. The marketing landscape continued to improve in the fourth quarter, we have adapted well to Apple’s IDFA changes and have been successful in our marketing campaigns with increased disciplined investing in user acquisition towards the end of the year linked to new launches and sustained returns. This contributed to an extremely successful launch of RuPaul’s Drag Race Superstar which, as we mentioned last quarter, surpassed the 1 million download mark only weeks after launch. Our core portfolio of games was a strong contributor to our performance this quarter. We had no new game launches until late October and still realized a strong recovery from the seasonally slow third quarter,” said Darcy Taylor, CEO of East side Games Group.

“With a record setting FY2021 in the rear view, we have continued to execute on our growth strategy. On January 27 of this year, we launched the second of our ‘Super Marquee’ titles, The Office: Somehow We Manage, in collaboration with Universal Games and Digital Partnerships. This title has already ranked in the Top 10 Games in Canada and the US, Top 10 Casual Games in 6 countries, and was also featured as Game of the Day, on the Apple App Store. February 15th marked another milestone for us as we announced the achievement of $100 million revenue for the 12-month period ended February 5, 2022. We expect to build on this $100 million milestone through Q1 2022 as we recognise a full quarter of revenue from RuPaul's Drag Race Superstar and capture the first partial quarter of The Office: Somehow We Manage as it begins to ramp up," continued Mr. Taylor.

Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2021 Highlights:

- Revenue was $28.6 million, a 49% increase vs Q4 2020 revenue of $19.2 million.
- Annual revenue was $93.2 million, an increase of 37% vs. 2020 revenue of $68.1 million.
- Q4 Adjusted EBITDA was $1.1 million, a decrease of 83% vs same period 2020 Adjusted EBITDA of $6.6 million.
- Full year Adjusted EBITDA was $7.4 million, a decrease of 38% vs 2020 Adjusted EBITDA of $12.0 million.
- Q4 net and comprehensive loss of $(0.8) million, or ($0.01) on a per common share basis.
- Full year 2021 net and comprehensive loss of $1.9 million or ($0.03) per share
- Adjusting for the lower US dollar in 2021 compared to 2020, in constant dollars, Q4 revenue would have been $29.2 million and full year revenue on a pro forma basis would have been $100.3 million.
- Cash on hand at December 31, 2021 was $9.2 million. In addition to the cash on the balance sheet, the Company has access to $13.5 million in credit facilities, none of which has been drawn upon in the reporting period.
- Record player audience with Q4 Daily Active Users (DAU) reaching 348,154, up 21% year-over-year, and Monthly Active User (MAU) of 1,526,246, up 53% over the same period.
- Average Revenue per DAU (ARPDau) for the quarter was $0.90, slightly up from the prior year quarter.
- Launched RuPaul's Drag Race Superstar mobile game on October 25th. This game has since been shortlisted for Pocket Gamer's People's Choice Award and secured Game of the Day feature on the Apple App Store

- Expanded and extended the partnership with Trailer Park Boys to include more games in expanded genres.
- Added new Game Kit partner, NoPowerup, for the development of an idle business tycoon-style game to launch in 2022.

“Record quarterly revenue capped off a record year for us. The breadth of our game portfolio allowed us to adapt to marketing landscape changes in the previous 2 quarters and return to strong growth in Q4. Adjusted EBITDA was impacted by increased investment in user acquisition and development of new titles,” continued Mr. Taylor.

Significant events subsequent to fourth Quarter 2021:

- Launched The Office: Somehow We Manage, in collaboration with Universal Games and Digital Partnerships, on January 27. This title has already ranked in the Top 10 Games in Canada and the US, Top 10 Casual Games in 6 countries, and was also featured as Game of the Day, on the Apple App Store.
- Entered into a multi-year partnership with ViacomCBS Consumer Products, for the worldwide release of a Star Trek: Lower Decks-themed mobile game. The game will be available in 2022 on both iOS and Android.
- Entered into a multi-year partnership with BBC Studios, for the worldwide release of a mobile title based on the Doctor Who franchise. The game will be available in 2022 on both iOS and Android.
- Acquired Funko Pop! Blitz mobile game from N3TWORK. Funko Pop! Blitz is a deeply engaging match-3 blitz character collection game featuring Funko Pop! versions of lovable characters across multiple iconic franchises in unique weekly events.
- Expanded the Game Kit partnership with Mighty Kingdom, based in Australia, for the world-wide release of three additional free-to-play mobile games on iOS and Android

“We’ve carried our momentum into 2022, executing on our growth pillars of organic game growth, accretive acquisitions and distributed growth through our proprietary Game Kit platform licensing. We’ve added more ‘Super Marquee’ IP in the form of the Star Trek and Doctor Who franchises, acquired Funko Pop! Blitz, which fits perfectly into our portfolio of top tier casual games, in addition to expanding our Game Kit partnership with Mighty Kingdom,” said Darcy Taylor.
